CHARCOAL KILNS COOKOUT

Join us at Vermejo's historic charcoal kilns for a hot and hearty meal cooked over an open flame while reminiscing about the once bustling village of Catskill. The town was born as a lumber camp in the summer of 1890 and named by railroad manager C.E. Meeks because it reminded him of the Catskill Mountains near his hometown in New York state. At one time, 3000 cords of wood were burned daily to produce charcoal in these ovens.

Minimum -Maximum Guests: 4-12

Location Options: Upper Charcoal Kilns
Chef-attended lunch

Price: $75-$175 per person*

Additional charge for alcoholic beverages.*

OLD COSTILLA LODGE BARBEQUE

You can still take a peek inside the Old Costilla Lodge and imagine what a visit was like 20, 30, or even 100 years ago. William Bartlett's team built this original structure in the early 1900s, and guests of Vermejo stayed here until shortly before the new LEED-certified Costilla Lodge opened in 2010.

Enjoy stories of yesteryear, while the aroma of mouthwatering burgers and brats wafts through the mountain air.

Don't forget to chat with the chef about grilling tips and tricks.

Minimum - Maximum Guests: 4-12

Location: Old Costilla Lodge
chef-attended lunch or dinner

Price: Lunch $75 - 175 per person

Dinner $100 - 200 per person

Additional charge for alcoholic beverages.*

THE STABLES

The Gourley family who owned Vermejo from 1948-1973 introduced "The Stables" as an elegant dining venue when they converted the Bartlett's personal stables for guests of the ranch. Harness your western spirit for lunch or dinner at The Stables. The perfect ending to a headquarters horseback ride, a meal at The Stables promises a meet and greet with the Horses of Vermejo and fun, rustic fare served cowboy style.

Minimum - Maximum Guests: 2-10
Location: Inside the barn at The Stables

Price: Lunch $50-75 per person
Dinner $75-$125 per person

Additional charge for alcoholic beverages.*

COWBOY BREAKFAST

Do breakfast like the cowboys did, cooked over a fire in cast-iron, with all of your hearty favorites. Start with a steaming cup of coffee and a bowl of greek yogurt, fresh berries and homemade granola before piling on biscuits and gravy, bacon, eggs, and fried potatoes.

This leisurely breakfast near a smoky crackling campfire includes all of the best elements of camping with none of the work. It's the perfect ending to an early-morning wildlife tour, or beginning to a day filled with adventures in nature.

Minimum - Maximum Guests: 1-6

Location Options: Merrick or Adams Lake, or Vermejo River

Price: $50 per person

Additional charge for alcoholic beverages.*

LAKESIDE FISH FRY & COOKOUT

What a catch! Our chef's are excited to cook up the catch of the day, burgers and brats and serve it alongside fresh corn-on-the-cob, salads and piping hot pies or cobblers for a lake-to-table experience you won't soon forget.

It's easy to spend a whole day at the lake, hiking, boating, fishing, and wildlife viewing and still not be ready to leave.

If you plan a lakeside cookout, hunger won't drive you back to the lodge. You can make that long summer day last until the sun sinks below the horizon.

Minimum-Maximum Guests: 4-12

Location Options: Adams Lake, Seven Lakes, or Merrick Lake (6-40 person capacity)

Price: $100-150 per person*

*Additional charge for alcoholic beverages.

HIGH COUNTRY STREAMS COOKOUT

Like a lakeside cookout, but beside a rushing stream, this cookout is designed to stretch your carefree summer day a little longer. Instead of going back to the lodge to fuel up, let us bring the feast to you. Create a personalized menu with your Reserve Ambassador and spend a few more hours in the Vermejo countryside.

Minimum-Maximum Guests: 4-12

Location: Rio Costilla Basin
(6-40 person capacity)

Price: $100-150 per person

Additional charge for alcoholic beverages.*

CURATED WATERSIDE PICNICS

Our pop-up curated picnics allow you the luxury of lunch with the song of a rippling stream or a lake lapping against the shore, without having to stray from your adventure-filled day.

Savor a selection of scrumptious wraps, salads and sides, with all of the comforting extras: tablecloths, glassware, blankets, flatware, even a nature-plucked centerpiece, delivered to the location of your choice.
